[illegible] Refiners' Meeting.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—A meeting of the committee appointed by the sugar refiners Thursday was held yesterday, and it was decided to call a general meeting of the refiners of the country to be held in this city next Tuesday for the purpose of taking such action as may be thought necessary to protect their interests. Careful investigation of the matter by a competent committee which Secretary Bristow has promised to appoint it is claimed will show that no reduction of drawback ought to be made, that the reduction in amount retained by government to cover expenses of collecting import duties, from ten to fifteen per cent, which was made last March does not give American refiners an undue advantage over their foreign competitors, but that it has only operated [illegible] until it is beginning to assume a more [illegible] condition.

WASHINGTON CITY.

What is [illegible] on at the Capitol

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—A Washington special says the [illegible] reached by the President upon his arrival was the signing of a huge mass of documents which had accumulated during his absence. Then the Mississippi troubles were discussed. At[illegible] General Pierrepont relieved the mind of the [illegible] by informing its head that all advices received from that state represented peace and order prevailing, with the prospect that no further trouble was anticipated.

Then followed a discussion with reference to the [illegible]. This continued up to the hour of adjournment, some time after two o'clock. Attorney General Pierrepont has authority [illegible] that no successor has been decided upon, nor would there be until next week. [illegible] is that the successor has been decided upon so far as the cabinet is concerned—that is, that the place has been tendered to somebody and he has not yet had time to reply or is holding it under advisement. There is a well grounded [illegible] Chandler is the coming man. He is here to-night [illegible] with Assistant Secretary Cowan. To add to the significance of this is the [illegible] arrived here with the President. [illegible] It is held by those who incline to the belief that Chandler is the man, that he is a [illegible] worker, and the one who, with [illegible] of a cabinet position to assist him, will [illegible] benefit to the party with which he is affiliated. Others hold to the conclusion that Judge Alfonso Taft of Ohio can have the vacant place if he desires.

[illegible] of opinion that he can now [illegible] arrangement for the [illegible] 4½ per cent. bonds [illegible] the result in Ohio as sure to give [illegible] United States securities in Europe. Had the policy of inflation been indorsed in Ohio by a [illegible] majority he was apprehensive that a difficulty might have ensued in negotiating the loan, even if he could at the present time place it at all. The comments of the foreign press [illegible] seem to bear out his conclusions in this respect.

The new [illegible] fractional currency issued will be ready for issue on Monday or Tuesday of next week. The delay in their production was caused by the rejection of badly printed backs furnished by the Philadelphia contractors. There has been [illegible] fifty-cent notes since March last, in order that the [illegible] issue, which has been counterfeited considerably, might be retired before the new ones are issued.

Senator Edmunds has declined the U. S. judgeship of the second judicial district. It is understood that he is quite indignant that the President should have thought that he would exchange a full term of six years in the senate to which he has been selected for the office selected for him. Those claiming to know say that Grant [illegible] the place not intending it as a compliment, but rather with a view of getting him out of the senate. Edmunds holds the responsible position of chairman of the senate judiciary committee and refused openly to support the infamous force bill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Senator Sargent says there will be no change in the collectorship of the port, or other custom house officials in San Francisco, or in the mint superintendency or sub treasury, [illegible] all rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. Mississippi Politics.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Ex Senator Pease had an interview to-day with the President on the subject of Mississippi, including the causes of the troubles, the present condition of affairs and the [illegible]. The president talked freely and said he was much gratified that the two political parties had effected an amicable adjustment by which a fair election would be held and peace [illegible] within the state. Efforts have heretofore been made by Senator Bruce and friends for the removal of four Federal officers in Mississippi but Pease has assurance that no removals would be made in that state for mere partisan reasons. Attorney General Pierrepont assured him that none coming under his department would be disturbed.

Fast Mail Arrangements.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The postmaster general has directed, in compliance with a request of the postmaster of St. Louis, that a re-arrangement of the fast mail service between New York and St. Louis and the southwest be made prior to the first [illegible], so all such matter as naturally belongs to the Pennsylvania railroad and orders it to be sent by the [illegible] of the New York Central and Lake Shore route. This new arrangement will save the department the expense of an unnecessarily long haul, and insure quicker delivery of mails between the east and southwest and points on the line between St. Louis and Pittsburgh to which [illegible]. It will also prevent delays [illegible] by lack of railway postal car service between Pittsburgh and St. Louis.

Spanish Joe and a Mr Reed, of McMinnville, had a dispute last week about the amount due the former for cutting wood, when Joe drew a large knife with which he is always armed and laying hold of Mr Reed demanded the amount of money he claimed with threats to kill if he did not get it right then and there. Mr John Booth here came to Mr Reed's assistance, and the two men succeeded in disarming Joe of his knife. Mr Reed then started away, leaving Joe and Booth together, repairing to Mr Booth's house near by, to which he was followed shortly afterward by the Spaniard with blood in his eyes, having recovered his knife from Mr Booth by promising good behavior. He met Mr Reed in the door and attacked him savagely, striking him with the knife. The blow took effect in Mr. Reed's clothing only until it reached his right hip when the knife penetrated his person, cutting a slight gash about two inches in length. Had the savage been a little closer it is probable he would have cut Mr Reed nearly in two as he made a sweeping stroke, which laid every thing open before it, but happily it did not go quite deep enough to answer his blood thirsty purpose.

Frightful Accident.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—We have just learned of a dreadful accident which occurred in the work at San Fernando tunnel on Tuesday last. Particulars are meager but the main facts seem to be these: On Tuesday as the cars in incline No. 2 were being hoisted the coupling chain broke and the cars were precipitated to the bottom. Three men lost their lives by the accident, one of whom was a Chinaman. His head was severed completely from his body. One of the white men was killed instantly and the other died next day. The one who was instantly killed has a wife and family. We have been unable to ascertain the names of the unfortunate men. Another man was injured at the time, but at last accounts he was in a fair way to recover.

One hundred and twenty San Pedro and Santa Monica passengers got off at Santa Monica and came up by the new road. The cars do not run further than Cienega, the first station from Los Angeles. The road as far as completed is in fine running order, as the time made indicates. Three excursion trains were run over the road to-day.

LAW MAKERS ON THEIR RAMBLES

OLYMPIA, W. T., Oct. 15, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In accordance with an invitation extended by the house and accepted by the council, to visit the public buildings of the territory, the two bodies left Olympia on Wednesday morning last, accompanied by the governor, secretary of the territory, the reporters of the press and several ladies and gentlemen of this city. The steamer Favorite left the wharf at 5:30 A. M. and was soon in the midst of a dense fog, but owing to the well known ability of the pilot no accident or detention occurred during the entire trip. At 8 o'clock we reached Steilacoom, but as the wagons had not yet arrived for the conveyance of the guests to the your correspondent, accompanied by one of the members of the house, Mr. Donthit, proceeded to wend his way toward that institution which has lately caused a sensation throughout this part of the territory, and which resulted in the governor's ordering an investigation into the matter last January. The commission, after investigating the charges for five days, came to the conclusion that the charges were not sustained, and the governor in his message to the legislative body makes use of the following language:

"From the high standing and integrity of the gentlemen composing the commission, I am fully satisfied that the charges were carefully and impartially investigated and that their report which will be submitted to you is in strict accordance with the facts."

Notwithstanding, the report was signed by such men as Hon. J. M. Lowe, Dr. N. Ostrander, Hon. Stephen Judson, Dr. J. C. Kellogg and Dr. A. M. Ballard, yet the people were not satisfied that everything was right, nor as it should be, and the members of the legislature, anxious to satisfy their constituents and with a conscientious regard for the welfare of those unfortunates placed in their charge, acted well and wisely in proposing to visit the asylum and see for themselves if matters were in the fearful condition reported, and although the sum of $200 was spent in chartering a steamer for the occasion, which of course will have to be paid by the territory, yet in my humble estimation the amount will not by any means be thrown away, nor considered squandered, if in the end it relieves the minds of the people of this territory of any [illegible] as to the treatment of the inmates. Fully appreciating the responsibility that rested on them as representatives of the people and with a determination to do justice in every particular, I am happy to be able to say that I have not heard a single member of the legislature express an opinion as to [illegible] one way or the other concerning this matter. I think it is highly creditable to the members to know that they have minds [illegible] and as far as I know of them I feel satisfied that a more honest and conscientious body of men never sat within the walls of our capitol, and our territory may be proud of them.

The asylum is located in the garrison formerly occupied by U. S. troops, and is a place well adapted to the purpose, being built in the center of one of the most beautiful natural parks in our territory and surrounded by nature's richest ornaments. The last time I visited the institution the men and women were both in the same building but since that time Mr. Harmon, the contractor, has fitted a separate building for the women at his own expense and has placed it in charge of the matron, Mrs. Ensign, who looks to be a cheerful and good hearted lady and for whom the inmates seem to have a great respect. The ward containing the convalescent patients is under the direction of Dr. Payne, who although a young man, seems to be well posted as regards insanity. The resident physician is Dr. A. M. Ballard, late of the Oregon insane asylum, a gentleman who seems well qualified for the position he holds, and is only anxious that every charge of ill treatment of patients in the asylum should be fully and freely investigated. The asylum now contains 51 patients, 10 of whom are females, besides waiters, cooks and watchman. A piano is placed in the men's ward, and adds very much to the happiness of the patients, being often played upon by the Misses Harmon. Contiguous to the asylum is a splendid skating rink and a swing in both of which the unfortunate people pass what would be to them many weary hours. Books, papers and periodicals are also liberally supplied by the contractor and officers, and the poor creatures seem to take great pleasure in looking at the pictures, even when they have but little idea of their meaning. I might suggest here that a charitable public would be doing a kindness by sending a few periodicals, books, papers or any light reading matter they could spare, addressed to the resident physician for the use of the insane. Some of them I was told are very fond of reading works on religion, while others will pore over Harper's Weekly for hours at a time. In connection with this matter I might advise a pre-payment of postage in all cases.

The visitors left no part of the asylum unexamined. No underground or locked up cells were discovered where tortures could possibly be inflicted. Everything was open, nothing hidden, and from the appearance of the inmates they are certainly well fed and in a healthy condition at least so far as their bodies are concerned. Handsome chromos are suspended on the walls giving a home-like appearance to the wards, while an air of cleanliness and extreme care pervades the entire institution throughout. The food is of the very best quality, and fresh vegetables are very liberally supplied from the contractor's garden.

From the extreme flatness of the surface surrounding the asylum, it was difficult to have good drainage, but Mr. Harmon has succeeded in arranging the sewerage in such a way that no symptoms of unhealthiness are apparent among the inmates. The water works erected by Mr. Harmon at a cost of about $2,000 are a most important feature and one which deserves consideration at the hands of the legislature, serving as it does the walls of an institution in which cleanliness is a main object. The water is distributed all over the grounds and is of good quality, being pumped from a never failing spring located at some distance from the asylum. Did space permit I could speak of many other objects which I noticed during my visit, all going to show the kindness and care evinced by the present contractor for those whom he has in charge, but I am sure that a man who uses his utmost endeavors to ameliorate the condition of this unfortunate class of persons, is not the one to allow harsh measures to be used such as have been spoken of on the outside. Having said so much of one institution let me pass on to that of the

which I also had an opportunity of visiting on my way home from the asylum. The convicts had just come in from work, and one of them had that day received a pardon from Gov. Ferry, after an imprisonment for eight years for the murder of a shipmate. The object of the executive clemency seemed in very delicate health, and appeared deeply grateful for his liberty. He stated that his clothes were in a ragged condition, and asked if he could not be supplied with some new ones, upon which the governor inquired of the sheriff how much each was allowed for clothing. That officer stated that $60 was the amount, but that this prisoner had torn his clothes during a crazy fit. It struck your correspondent as likely that all of the prisoners who were present must have been subject to crazy spells, as their clothes were as bad, if not worse, than those of the one who mentioned the matter. If the clothes are not drawn, or are drawn and not given to the convicts, the matter should be sifted, so that at least they can have justice done them in that particular. The jail is a miserable, good for nothing hog pen. Yes! I have seen hogs living in a much more respectable looking building, and in this nineteenth century it is simply a disgrace to think that men—human beings like ourselves, notwithstanding their faults—should be compelled to exist in such a hole. The sooner this matter is rectified the better for all concerned. If the United States government were a little less selfish and grasping the matter could be easily arranged by placing the convicts in the penitentiary, just the other side of the bay. But the government is rather anxious to keep up its respectability by running a good boarding house and charging boarders in this island hotel at the enormous rate of $1.50 per day, payable every thirty days in advance. No wonder the territory is afraid to strike a bargain with such an inexorable landlord. Mr. Billings, the sheriff of Thurston county, has, I understand, made an offer to board, clothe and keep the convicts of the territory for the sum of $1 per day, payable in territorial warrants. If that is the case, why not accept it immediately? That prisoners are not well kept in those ruined shells called in this territory by the name of jails is a fact apparent to the most near sighted, and for the credit of this new and prosperous territory, it is hoped that the matter of keeping territorial convicts will be closely looked into and something done to remedy the present defective system.

The visit to the territorial university at Seattle and the penitentiary on McNeil's island will form the subject of my next letter.

STATE FAIR

Fifteenth Annual Fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society.

Sixth Day

SATURDAY, Oct. 16, 1875.

This morning there was a dense and rather cold fog hanging over the valley, but at an early hour the thousands of campers were astir making preparations to leave, and in a few hours the road was lined with wagons loaded with their precious freight of old and young, while those who had articles on exhibition were busy taking them down and carrying them away, and at the present writing the pavilion is almost cleared of the thousand beautiful articles that have decorated its beautiful walls. It is evident that it is the last day in the morning of the fifteenth annual fair.

Up stairs in the secretary's office there is a crowd pushing, surging, jamming and crowding each other without any regard to sex or calling. The rough garbed laborer jostles the richly dressed city belle in attempting to work their way to the different clerks' desks to obtain their premium warrants, while all are speaking at the top of their voices pleading and entreating to be served first, as they have a half fare ticket and must be off on the 11 o'clock train and they cannot afford to remain over until Monday. Various and ingenious are the arguments brought to bear upon the obdurate clerks, who are human, and cannot do only the amount of work within human possibility. The scene is interesting, and reminds a person somewhat of the operations of a stock board.

The daughters of J. L. Hathaway, who are the young ladies who made the first premium butter in the class of Misses under 14 years, and on testing the same we will say it is far superior to any we have been able to purchase in this city, and the awarding of the premium was simply an act of justice. We were unable to obtain their names.

J. A. Graham, F. L. DeLashmutt and several others who have had vegetables on exhibition, have generously donated their collection to the Orphans' Home, a benevolent institution near Salem.

The different shows and different entertainments have done well, and one of, if not the most deserving on the ground, was Reed's Panorama of Oregon and Washington Territory, which has been quite successful. This panorama has worth and is no catch-penny arrangement.

FLORAL DEPARTMENT.

This department is a big thing, and is rapidly increasing from year to year. The awarding committee finished their labors last night, and gave universal satisfaction, which is certainly complimentary, to say the least.

Col. J. R. Moores is on hand this morning, and has secured a liberal supply of grains for exhibition in his office which will undoubtedly cause considerable surprise among the immigrants as they come to the office.

BREAD AND CAKES.

The bread and cake department was filled to repletion, and evidently there was a sharp contest from the looks of the articles on exhibition. As the committee were very hungry all of them had been submitted to the surgical operation of incisions.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Zan Bros. have a large collection of wares from their establishment, consisting of paper and willowware, also wall and carpeting paper.

Wm. Turgoose, bull, three years, 2d premium.

G. W. Hunt, Salem, bull, three years, 2d premium.

FRUIT AND GRAPES.

Jas. R. Stevens (grapes) has on exhibition the largest bunches of grapes that ever were brought to this pavilion, and would undoubtedly have carried away the premium if he had not been relieved of several of his finest bunches by some person who had an ungovernable passion for grapes.

Joseph Hamilton had a splendid array of apples, and was awarded the second premium for two varieties.

Mr. G. W. Walling had a fine collection of apples and pears, which will compare with any of his previous exhibitions, which is considerable of an encomium.

Wm. Kern, who has eight varieties of apples, has on exhibition a new seedling known as Kern's September, which will evidently fill an important place in our native fruits. It ripens at the month named.

Seth Luelling has a case full of peaches, plums and prunes that are really fine, while his collection of pears is really incomparable, and has won the blue ribbon.

Seth Luelling has won the first premium for the best ten varieties of keeping apples and the second premium for the best twelve varieties of keeping and shipping apples.

J. H. Lambert, best four varieties, received the second premium. He has a large collection, which were much admired.

H. Hanson is again on hand, and has made havoc among the premiums and has carried away ten first and one second premium.

W. P. Watson was present with a well selected variety of his choice fruit, and was awarded a goodly number of premiums, but the ribbons had been removed before I could get to see them; consequently I could not get the number.

H. W. Prettyman was awarded the premium on the largest apples, and the Centennial commissioners claimed them to send away, a compliment to the raiser and an honor to the state. He won several other premiums.

INCIDENTS AND ACCIDENTS.

A small boy fell out of a swing last evening and sustained a compound fracture, but a physician soon made the proper bandage, and he was quite comfortable when I saw him.

Wm. C. Beckett, a resident and much respected gentleman of this county, was stricken down with congestion of brain and spinal column last evening, and was removed to Salem, but his life is despaired of.

Two individuals had a spat and proposed to settle it by a knock down. No. 1 knocked No. 2 down twice, when No. 2 changed tactics and brought into requisition a stick, and won an easy victory. The crowd were divided on the merits of the combatants.

A man had a leg broken last night by the hub of a hack driven against him. He was taken to town to have the injured limb set.

Yesterday one of the race horses, after the close of the first 2-mile heat, kicked a man as he crowded by him, although he was so near the animal as not to be badly hurt. The crowd should keep farther away out of respect to the horses' heels.

Mr. J. F. Strong has invented and had on exhibition an

ELECTRO MAGNETIC MACHINE.

A new motive power to run machinery, which for ingenuity excels anything heretofore brought before the public notice. Mr. Strong has been for some time trying to solve the problem of why electricity could not be used as a motive power, and now has a machine of sufficient dimensions to run a sewing machine, although when he commenced to work upon the machine he did not entertain the idea of succeeding, but was agreeably surprised to discover that it would furnish power, and reliable at that. It consists of a brass wheel of about four inches in diameter and one and a half wide, with soft iron bands at equal distances, which are attracted by three sets of coils, that are so arranged that the first coil attraction is shut off at a certain time, and the next following one takes up the attraction and continues the motion, thus transmitting to the next, and furnishes a portion of the motion. On the shaft is another wheel composed of platinum and Indiarubber, connecting with these minute wheels that are charged with electricity, and when they touch the platinum bands they emit sparks of that subtle fluid and impart motion to the machine. Mr. Strong has applied for a patent and will undoubtedly obtain it. It is his intention to manufacture one of one horse power and send it to Philadelphia to be tested at the centennial, if he should meet with sufficient encouragement. The committee who passed upon the machine did not, for some reason, see fit to award only a small premium, when it should have been equal to that of a one horse engine, which is, I am informed, to be $30.

EQUESTRIANSHIP.

There were eleven entries in this department and there was quite a strife for the premiums, although they were small. The names of the successful riders we were unable to obtain, but they won their premiums fairly. One young lady, Miss Julia P. Clark, of Cottage Grove, Lane county, rode, but for some reason was not awarded a premium, and the crowd became vociferous. When she appeared as a bareback rider she was heartily cheered, and a sum of money amounting to $31.50 was made up and presented to her, which was more than double the first premium.

ON THE TURF.

There was but one society race on the programme to-day—a match for trotting horses, 3 best in 5, mile heats, 1st $175, 2d $75, 3d $50, no horses being allowed to enter which had a better record than 3:30. There were four entries, as follows: J. J. Welch named Belle, B. B. Acker br. h. Ham Boyd, —— Neal named Fly by Night, and W. D. Hoxter Small Hopes. Kilbourn sold pools about even on Belle and Boyd and on Fly-by-Night and Small Hopes; the bids were also even, being $1 on the two latter to $4 on the two former. The first heat was won by Ham Boyd, Belle 2d and Fly by Night 3d. Small Hopes vindicated his name and was distanced. On the second heat the three remaining horses got off well together, but Boyd and Belle soon took the lead and kept side by side all the way around, the former coming in only a neck ahead. The betting was then two to one on Boyd, but the third heat showed that such action was highly discreditable to a man's judgment, for with an even start Belle shot past Acker's horse on the first quarter and gained about 60 yards, which she kept up to close of the heat, Acker saving his distance only because Welch looked back just before he reached the pole and seeing that he was about to distance the field, pulled up his mare and came under the string in a walk, Acker with Boyd getting inside the distance pole, but Neal, with Fly by Night, was shut out. The fourth heat was started neck and neck, and the two kept close together all the way round, Belle winning by a few feet. This made two heats to each horse and wagers were again even. Without much regard to time between heats, the horses to decide the race started in the fifth heat, which was won by Belle quite easily. To those who saw the match it was evident that the fastest animal won the race, and many thought that had her driver brought out her full powers she could have distanced the field on the first heat. A recapitulation of this, the last regular race of the fair, is as follows:

Belle b m, entered by Welch	2	[illegible]	1	1	1
Ham Boyd br h, entered by Acker	1	1	2	2	2
Fly by Night br h, entered by Neal	3	3	Dis
Small Hopes gr h, entered by Hoxter	Distanced

The "regulars" having had their last contest, the so called scrubs were brought out and very nearly monopolized the track for the remainder of the day, though the fine trotter Mark Twain was exhibited on the track, and admired by all who saw him.

The trotting stallion, Blue Mountain Boy, seven years old, was also brought on the track and offered for sale at auction. This horse having a record of 2:48, with very little training, there were a good many who felt that they would like to own him. Kilbourn gave his fine points in a brief prologue, and he was started at $800, which was soon raised to $900, and a cool thousand. Some one whose name we did not learn became the owner for $1,025 gold coin down.

It is rumored that a race has been up to-day between Lester and Twenty-one to be run on the Walla Walla track in about three weeks, but of this there is nothing certain. Should these two flyers with Osceola come together, barring accidents, a splendid race would be witnessed, for no laggard can cope with any one of them.

CONCLUSION.

The fair is now over, and as far as success financially and articles on exhibition are concerned was far superior to any ever held by the society. There were on the grounds on Thursday and Friday no less than eighteen thousand people, while others who live in large cities say there were twenty thousand, counting men, women and children. The latter estimate is probably correct, but be that as it may, there were certainly never so many together before in Oregon.

The weather was propitious and the improvements during the year went far toward making everybody much more comfortable than at any time heretofore. All in attendance seemed in good humor and determined on having a grand holiday.

The state fair is simply a visitation day for the industrial community of the state, and it is here that all classes compare notes, exchange experiences of different modes of operation in the particular classes in which they are interested, and note the rapid strides in the improvement of articles or machinery in use, and critically examine new and strange implements brought for the first time to their notice.

The discussions often elicited were heated and covered all the grounds under consideration, but invariably, as far as I noticed, with good feeling. There is another noticeable improvement since the organization of the society (and I have attended all but three), and that is in regard to dress. The young ladies who now attend the fair are far more neatly dressed than was the rule a few years since—not gaudy with unsightly colors without regard to complexion or figure—but more refined, and the blending of colors in many instances is strikingly harmonious, at the same time evidently within the exchequer of pater familias. All have acquired that grace of poise that can only be obtained by contact with the more refined and fortunate. This will have its influence on the state at large and will do much to remove the asperities of frontier life.

The people are going home and the pavilion, as I write, is as vacant as a banquet hall the day after the feast. The officers are now beginning to feel the effects of the reaction, when the excitement has been withdrawn, and the fifteenth annual fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society is numbered with those gone before, and the last was not least.

Rev. Mr. Hoberg organized a class in Chehalem valley last Sunday afternoon. He will preach there every third Sunday at 3 o'clock.

Wasco county has taxable property greater in value this year than last, by $273,617, according to the assessment roll. The total in the county this year is $1,022,515.

Since the work of distributing the mails commenced along the Columbia river by route agents, every point on the road within sixty miles of Astoria is supplied with a daily mail.

There is an effort being made to organize a militia company at Lafayette by some of the young bloods. In a few days a request will be forwarded Gen. M. V. Brown to appoint a time and place of meeting.

The Mountaineer reports shipments of silver to San Francisco from Grant county, which "assay $80,000 to the ton." A ton of solid silver would not weigh that much by several pounds, and we therefore think the report a hoax.

A letter from Harrisburg to the Democrat says: "Two of our most prominent citizens, S. and D., who have been dealing quite extensively in Angora goats, sent East for a full-blooded Angora buck, valued at $500. On arrival of the cars quite an excitement prevailed, caused by the appearance of the $500 buck, which was of the finest [illegible]. It was taken to pasture and watched with great care, but imagine the suprise of the owners when he was found to be a wether."

The annual meeting of the Baker County Bible Society was held at the Methodist church in Baker City on the 10th inst. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. G. W. Adams. A stirring address was delivered by Rev. P. C. Hetzler, A. D. S., of the American Bible Society of Oregon and Washington Territory. A liberal collection was then taken up, and the following officers elected for the ensuing year: Rev. G. W. Adams, president; W. Brown, vice president; I. B. Ison, secretary; H. N. McKinney, treasurer and depository; Bros. D. S. Kinsey, Rev. E. P. Waltz, and G. J. Bowman, committee.

The Baker City Democrat says: "Douglass, the man who killed Walker at Rattlesnake station on the Winnemucca road some year or so since, and who was arrested by Sheriff Boyd and brought to our city for trial last week, was arraigned to plead to an indictment found by the grand jury for murder in the second degree, pleaded guilty to the charge as alleged, and was sentenced by the court to imprisonment in the penitentiary during his natural life. Caloway Johnson, who was tried for horse stealing, was found guilty and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. On the charge of robbing the United States mail he was tried and acquitted."

The Bedrock Democrat states that on the morning of Sunday, the 10th inst., P. Ivory came to Baker City and stated that he had been robbed of $4,000 on the toll road between Eldorado and Baker City, by three men. The greater portion of the money belonged to other parties, and other circumstances connected with the case, and discrepancies in his statements, led some of our people to the conclusion that it was doubtful whether he had been robbed or whether he was not himself the guilty party. He was taken to a justice's office, where he swore out a warrant which was placed in the hands of Sheriff Boyd, and he with Ivory and some other citizens started for the place where the depredation was said to have been committed. When they arrived there they could find no signs of any person having been there that morning but himself, and the belief of his guilt, before surmised, now became a certainty in the minds of the officer and those who accompanied him, and Mr. Ivory was arrested as the guilty party and brought to Baker City for examination under the charge of robbery, and it may be for perjury also.

THE PERSONAL CHARACTER TEST

Perhaps no other feature in the popular movement for the emancipation of the people from partisan control has been more distinctly prominent than the demand for the selection of persons of untarnished character for public officers. In this State especially that has been made one of the main grounds of the refusal of the people to abide by the choice of candidates made for them by the politicians That demand should never be abandoned nor relaxed All nominations should be brought to that test and no matter by whom a candidate is put forth if he fail to come up to the standard the people have set up in this respect, his pretensions should be set aside at the polls without further ado The Republicans of this State recognized the imperative character of that demand in their last State Convention, and presented a candidate whose private and official life is well known to the country and is without spot or blemish. Warren has lived among this people for more than a quarter of a century, has long occupied a position of prominence, has transacted business, public and private, with and for as large a number of people as any man in the State and no one calls his integrity in question

It should be remembered too that for some two or three years past the public mind has been extremely sensitive upon the subject of corruption or other misfeasance in office, and that during most of that time as well as for many years before, Warren was a Federal officer, having business with the people all over the country, being Receiver of the Land Office, and he has never been accused of any wrongful act or of conniving at the wrongful acts of others It is certainly as high a compliment as can be bestowed on any man to say that he has come through the ordeal of the last few years without criticism What with the unprecedented prevalence of corruption in the public service, and the resolute and sometimes reckless attacks by the press, no man with the least odor of misconduct about his garments could expect to escape the eye of the public But even the political enemies of Mr Warren have not attempted to produce a single instance wherein he has been an unfaithful or an inefficient public servant or an unworthy citizen Thus, it seems to us, is a reason far higher and stronger than any partizan relationship why he should receive the votes of the people next Monday It is not to Warren, the Republican, so much as it is to Warren, the man, the citizen, that we give our support. Upon this ground we feel justified in urging his election. Mr Lane is a young man, without any such established character as Mr Warren bears. He is comparatively untried, and yet even in so limited an experience he has not avoided criticism We do not pretend to speak from personal knowledge, and we should be glad to believe our information incorrect, but we can not ignore common fame which says Mr Lane is addicted to carrying conviviality to the point of positive dissipation His excesses are nothing to us, nothing to anybody but himself and those directly affected, so long as he pursues his private avocation But when he is presented as a proper person to represent Oregon in Congress, his personal habits become a proper subject of discussion Lane is a good fellow. So is many another man whose good fellowship would be the ruin of him if he went to Congress, besides disqualifying him to represent in any proper sense the moral sentiments and social habits of the people of Oregon in Congress In this particular respect we presume nothing can be said of the other candidates but they are for all purposes except that of incidentally assisting Lane out of the contest Between the only two candidates who are practically in the field, Mr Warren and Mr Lane, there ought to be no hesitation on the part of any voter who has been insisting that personal character is the only safe basis of official character

ZACHARIAH CHANDLER FOR SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

And now comes a report, apparently grounded on circumstances such as make it not improbable that ex-Senator Zachariah Chandler of Michigan, is to be the successor of Secretary Delano Should this report prove true, a good many people besides the aspirants for the position, will be greatly disappointed Mr Chandler is a man of considerable ability and very great experience in national politics but it would add nothing to the confidence of the people in the Administration for him to be brought into the cabinet Neither in the nation nor in his own State has he the sort of standing which the times, require in a man who is to occupy so high a place as that of Secretary of the Interior He is not generally regarded as a man of clean habits and associations whatever may be conceded to his abilities Possibly he may have kept his hands clean in the matter of making money out of the advantages his position as Senator gave him but the public have been led to think otherwise Possibly he may not have been in fact the aider and supporter of the rings that fastened themselves on every department of the public service at various times while he was a Senator but the public have been led to think otherwise Possibly he may be a sober and temperate man and an exemplar of sound morals but the public have been led to think otherwise Possibly he may be a man of such prudence and moderation as are demanded in the cabinet minister but the public have been led to think otherwise The reputation of a man as well as his true character is a proper subject for consideration in such an appointment It is essential first that he should be a man qualified for the discharge of the duties of the office, and of irreproachable life, and then that he should have the confidence and esteem of the people of the country besides, where there is so much smoke there is apt to be some fire Mr Chandler would hardly have it [illegible] [illegible] has always been [illegible] at of Bristow, and then well and lastly Pierrepont to places in the cabinet, has inspired a respect for the administration which would not be increased by the appointment of Chandler.

An important decision was recently rendered in the United States Supreme Court The case was one that attracted considerable attention some four or five years ago The defendants were indicted for murder in the U S Circuit Court for Kentucky They pleaded that before the indictment was found they were arrested for the same crime by the State authorities, and were then under bonds to answer the charge in the State Court The plea was overruled and a verdict was had, on the trial, against them The defendants objected to the jurisdiction on a motion in arrest of judgment but the Circuit Court held that since two of the witnesses against them were negroes who were not competent to testify in the State Court under the laws of Kentucky the Federal Court had jurisdiction of the case under the civil rights bill of 1866 The Supreme Court reversed the judgment, holding that the fact that witnesses who might testify in the U S Courts were excluded from the State Courts does not bring the case within the law of 1866 so as to give the Federal Courts jurisdiction

The reception which the revivalists Moody and Sankey had in Massachusetts was not so hearty as that given them in staid old England They made comparatively little progress in evangelizing the downeast Yankees and got a big controversy on their hands in the bargain The Unitarians of the hub proved altogether too stiff necked a generation to be brought to terms by the methods pursued by the two Western preachers and instead of lying quietly on their oars till the tide should ebb in its natural way, went to work to hasten its reflux by means of analytical examinations of the revival efforts, praising the evangelists for sincere laborers, and at the same time destroying the effects of their labors by arguing that the conversions wrought under their ministrations could not be permanent and might be harmful The preachers are going to give New England a wide berth hereafter Their next field of operations is Brooklyn, where they have abundant reason to believe they will find a more impressionable public mind

In addition to the criminal prosecutions against H B Claflin & Co for complicity in the silk frauds in which Lawrence was the chief manipulator the U S District Attorney has commenced a civil action against them on behalf of the Government for the value of the smuggled silks, which is laid at $1 200,000 Other suits have been commenced there in conjunction with other persons, for penalties in other similar cases amounting to $1 500 000 more One of these days there will be some tall compromising done in these cases

The Washington Chronicle says the Democrats would have been glad to fence Carl Schurz out of Ohio, because they hated to hear the truth proclaimed That is doubtless the fact, and it was for the same reason that he was fenced out of the Republican party a year or two ago and remained fenced out till the managers found they could not get along very well without him

"Don't talk to me about theories," cried Governor Allen "the times are too hard for that Theories won't fill a workingman's belly" And the people took Governor Allen at his word and voted not to attempt to fill their bellies with the greenback theories of Allen and his Democratic friends,

The only reason we can think of why Zach Chandler should be appointed Secretary of the Interior is the reason given in the special dispatch relative to the matter, which is, that he might "be of incalculable benefit to the party with which he affiliates"

At last accounts—that is on the 4th inst—there were only five men in the Memphis (Tennessee) jail under sentence of death for murder

To Proprietors Chemical Paint Company—Gents I had my house in Oakland painted with your paint. It was warranted to be good and satisfactory in every respect I was obliged to have the third coat put on to make it look as if it had been finally painted and even then I think one good coat of lead [illegible] would have given the house a better appearance I think you ought to make up to me the loss I sustained besides the annoyance I felt knowing that an inferior article had been put on when a No 1 article had been promised Hoping to hear from you on that subject I remain,

CITY.

A WOULD-BE SUICIDE FRUSTRATED.—John Gruber, the old German stone-cutter, who for a long time has been carrying on business in this city, was arrested yesterday forenoon and lodged in the city jail. Many Portland readers are acquainted with the individual history of this unfortunate subject. Years ago he was doing a thriving business in his line and was regarded as one of the best workmen in the city. Like all the rest of mankind Mr Gruber was not without his failings his peculiar and besetting weakness being strong drink. At times he yielded to the irresistible cravings of the demon of alcoholic stimulants and for days, even weeks, neglected his legitimate occupation and abandoned himself entirely to his cups. These periodical sprees became more and more frequent, and were of longer duration each time, until the unfortunate old man was almost constantly under the influence of liquor. Of course his business was neglected constantly declined and at length financial embarrassment followed and he became irretrievably involved. For some months past he has abandoned himself wholly to drink and a few weeks ago was arrested and committed to jail for twelve days. When the time was out he was liberated but instead of endeavoring to reform, he plunged headlong again into dissipation. Yesterday morning the police were informed that Gruber was very drunk and had broken open the door of the building—near the corner of Stark and Second streets—formerly occupied by his stonecutting establishment but which is at present owned by another person. On entering the building the policeman found that Gruber had tied a small rope to one of the cross timbers, the lower end of which reached within several yards of the ground. A short ladder was also found leaning against the wall. There is every reason to suppose that Gruber driven to the verge of insanity had made up his mind to destroy his useless life with which he had grown weary and disgusted. Had not the unfortunate man been discovered he would certainly have accomplished his suicidal purpose. He was taken to jail where he will be kept for several days—until reason shall have again asserted its sway. An inebriate asylum should close its charitable doors upon such a subject.

A HARD CASE.—To those of our readers who are in the habit of perusing the police court proceedings, the name of Harry Hastings must sound familiar. This individual has perhaps as good a police court record as any of the professional old tramps and chronic "bums" who, in times past, have honored the city with their unwelcome presence. Hastings has managed somehow or other to be boarded at the expense of the honest tax payers of Portland a great portion of the time since he has set his feet within the corporate limits of this city. It is simply a reiteration of the old story—no sooner out of jail than he is drunk and is "jugged" again. Some weeks ago he was arrested on the dual charges of vagrancy and drunkenness, and sentenced to the city jail 35 days. He served out his term of confinement—eating his regular beef steak and potatoes like a Spartan—and yesterday morning was liberated. Before three hours had passed over his worthless head, he was drunk, as a duke, and gathered up from the sidewalk in a helpless condition. He is now in jail where he will probably serve out another term of confinement. Imprisonment to such fellows is not punishment; they inhabit ... [illegible] an honest living by hard labor. Such fellows ought to be made to carry the rock and work in a chain gang like a common felon. Treatment of that character would sooner and more effectually break them from the thraldom of habitual drunkenness and vagrancy, than all the punishment which simple deprivation of personal liberty [illegible] in years.

PASSENGERS COMING.—On Saturday the steamship John L Stephens sailed from San Francisco for Portland, bringing hither the following: Wm L Halsey, P ... Wolff, J. H. Lowrence, B Levy, N Dusenbery, Rev. F. B. Van Horn, U S A, L J Hall, Miss E. H. ..., Mrs. J. R. Stalls and child, E G Clifford and family, Mark Isaacs and two children, W M Gwin, L D Wooley, L Bohlman, D. F. Panter, J. L. Davis, J Beam, F Moorehead, E. L. Hastings, H Arrowsmith, Mrs. O Y Brown, C. Brasch, W Hams, N. Wolff, C. F. Trey, J. H. Daly, Max Vogt, L Newman, E. Gibson, H. Daimond, F Glover, W F ..., E H. Fleston, J Myers, H ..., C W Wright, B. Barman, Mrs E Steinhart and child, Mrs. Parker and child, Mrs. E. W. Johnson, C C Beryon, W H Weld, ... Mrs. C. A. Dawkin and child, B. Crawford and family, Miss F Snooks, Mrs. M. Rupert and child, Miss Kate O'Leary, Mrs. McKeone and child, L E Salisbury and family, L Houser and wife, N Henry and family, L T. Brown, J Ward, D H Miller and wife, H. A. Miller and wife, E Snedder, J. Williams and family, L Goiwail and wife, C Schulpins and family, M Schultz, P Guardan, W B Settle and family, T Millet and family, H. E Schmidt and family, F. G. Biskwied, P. H. Baker, A Yickler, J Patterson, J D Odell, W H Queen.

ENGLISH PARTY.—A party of English gentlemen reached this city on Saturday from The Dalles, who are interested in the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway. These gentlemen came from Ottawa across the country along the proposed line of railroad making a preliminary examination of the region to be traversed by the road, and seeking the most available passes through the mountains. They brought with them to this city their camping outfit, instruments, etc. The following gentlemen compose the party: Captain the Hon M. Stapleton, A D C., General Selley Smyth, the Hon. J. Fitzwilliams, and Lieut Arthur W Vowell. Instead of going on through to Victoria, the party diverged from the proposed line, and, crossing the Rocky mountains, came down the Columbia. This morning they will start for Victoria, whither they go on business connected with this important enterprise. Lieutenant Vowell was in this city early last summer.

HOMICIDE.—Particulars of a homicide which occurred at Cathlamet on Friday have just reached us. A half breed named Reed was shot during an altercation on Friday and instantly killed. The person who committed the deed is a half breed, whose name we have not been able to learn. It appears the tragical affair was the result of an old feud which has long existed between Reed and the murderer. Reed came to his enemy's house on Friday notwithstanding he had been repeatedly warned not to do so. An altercation followed during which the man who committed the deed seized a shot gun and discharged its contents at Reed, producing death instantaneously. The murderer then fled since which time nothing has been seen or heard of him. By those who are acquainted with the circumstances it is claimed that the killing of Reed was justifiable.

COL. H W JANES.—In the Baltimore American of Oct. 5th, we observe the following paragraph concerning Col Janes, who was stationed for several years at the military post at Vancouver: "The headquarters of the chief quartermaster of the third quartermaster's district, military division of the Atlantic, was transferred on the first of this month from Philadelphia to Baltimore. Brevet Brigadier General J J Dana of the quartermaster's department, U S A formerly had charge of the headquarters. The office will in future be in charge of Col Henry W Janes, quartermaster in this city."

NO HOPES ENTERTAINED.—When last heard from, the condition of Edward Gallagher, who it will be remembered was seriously injured some days ago during a general melee at the Roxy saloon, on Front street, was such as to exclude all hope of ultimate recovery. He was conveyed to St Vincent's Hospital shortly after the injuries were received where he has since been kept. Every attention possible has been rendered the unfortunate man but all to no purpose. He still remains in a death like stupor, from which it is impossible to rally him. His death may be anticipated at any time.

CAME UP FOR REPAIRS.—The tug C J Brenham arrived here on Saturday morning from Astoria, and now lies at the wharf opposite the Willamette Iron Works. For some time the tug has been in need of repairs and it is for that purpose the boat was brought up. Capt. Geo Flavel came up on the Brenham and is at present in the city. Some days will elapse before the tug will be ready to proceed down the river.

SONG SERVICE.—Oro Fino Theater was densely packed last evening on the occasion of the song service, given under the direction of Prof. McGibeny. Every available seat was filled long before the hour for opening the exercises and standing room was in great demand. Throughout, the musical exercises were of a very pleasing and entertaining character and were received by the large audience with marked demonstrations of approval. One of the prominent features was the performance on the double bass by Master Hugh McGibeny a little fellow not more than seven years of age. To prevent the crowding in of such great numbers, it was announced from the platform that hereafter a contribution would be taken from each person going in at the door.

FALSE ALARM.—About 15 minutes to 9 o'clock last evening an alarm of fire was sounded from box No 9 situated at the corner of North Eighth and I streets. All the department answered the summons promptly but as might reasonably have been expected the alarm was false, so the companies had the unpleasant task of dragging the engines through muddy streets for nothing. On reaching the locality no person could be found who struck the alarm. Some means should be devised for the discovery of the perpetrators of these false alarms. Such conduct is demoralizing to the fire department and dangerous to public safety.

CHANGE OF ENGINEERS.—Mr Wm Doran, the competent and gentlemanly engineer on the fleet Bonita will go up the Columbia this morning on the Emma Hayward and will hereafter handle the throttle valve on the O. S. N. Co's large and handsome steamer Daisy Ainsworth. Mr Doran was engineer on the Daisy for some time after that boat was built, and by this transfer he is merely called upon to assume his old post of duty. Mr Fred Gates will succeed him as engineer on the Bonita.

DELAYED.—The steamship Oriflamme which went down the river on Thursday afternoon did not get to sea until late on Friday. The steamer reached Astoria about 3 o'clock Friday morning, and at 6 o'clock A. M. started seaward. However the fog hung so heavily about the mouth of the Columbia that it was deemed rather hazardous to proceed. The steamer came to anchor and was waiting for the fog to lift quite late on Friday. It is thought she got off sometime during the night.

MAIDEN TRIP.—Saturday afternoon the O S N Co's new light draught boat Occident, built last summer at the boneyard, made the trial trip. The machinery was found to work very smoothly and the trial in every respect resulted very satisfactorily. The Occident is the mate of the Orient, a handsome craft also constructed the present season by the company. Both these boats are now ready for service.

POTATOES.—Mr W Saturley, who lives on a farm about six miles west of this city, has raised the present season on one acre of land over 400 bushels of potatoes which may be regarded as an extraordinary yield. The potatoes are of the variety known as the Garnet Chile. These potatoes average 30 to the bushel. Who can beat the above?

COURTS.—United States circuit court will convene this morning at the usual hour, 10 o'clock. To-morrow morning the U S district court will convene. Pursuant to adjournment last week, the state circuit court will meet this morning at 9 o'clock.

SOCIABLE.—The ladies of the sewing society of the Congregational church will give a public entertainment to-morrow evening in the vestry of the church.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

Miss Lawlor, charged with defacing a building not her own, was discharged.

Mrs John Lawlor charged with committing an assault and battery upon the person of a neighbor's child, was tried and it appearing to the court that the defendant had committed the crime charged he ordered her to pay a fine of $5 in addition to the costs.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Oscar Kilbourn will sell at auction to-morrow at 10 o'clock a lot of fine stock. A splendid opportunity for good bargains. Read his announcement.

The well known trotting stallion, Blue Mountain Boy, has been sold for the sum of $1025. Nate Landsley was the purchaser.

Mr Frank G Bochow, agent of Rosenbaum & Einstein, successors to the well known firm of I. S. Rosenbaum & Co., San Francisco and formerly of Portland, is at the Hilton House. Messrs Rosenbaum & Einstein are largely engaged in the manufacture of fine Havana cigars which are said to be equal to the best imported goods.

What is the use of wearing a plain and poor fitting suit of clothes when you can purchase an elegant one just as easily. All you have to do is to give Beck & Waldman a call at the corner of Front and Washington streets. They have just received an immense stock of clothing. If you want to buy your boy or yourself a nice suit there is the place to go. They can satisfy you as to fit, quality and price.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY.

Pupils entering the week after the State Fair will pay only for the last half of the term. A partial reorganization of classes will afford a good opportunity for beginning studies.

T M GATCH, President

Adams & Owens, Front street between Taylor and Yamhill, give medicated vapor baths which work wonders in curing rheumatism and other chronic diseases.

The first invoice of fall and winter goods arrived on the last steamer and are now arranged in order so that JOS. KOHN's numerous customers can all and see all that is new and attractive in the clothing line. The styles displayed are the very latest in the market and must prove quite saleable. Fresh arrivals every steamer selected expressly for the trade by Mr Kohn, who knows just what will please his patrons. Call to-day and make your purchases.

PERSONAL.—Mr M Rosenblatt of First street returned last evening on the John L Stephens from San Francisco with a large stock of clothing, etc., for gentlemen and youths. His stock is worthy of inspection by all who desire ... Be sure and call on him and recollect the number.

BECK & WALDMAN have sold largely of their stock of clothing during the past week. Mr Beck has selected ... [illegible] ... The first purchases which are really the ... to be seen in Portland. The variety of styles for youths are numerous and ... examine their arrivals. Take your boy and have him fitted. BRIEF NOTES.

Over at last—the state fair.

Circus and theater this week.

Motion day in the state circuit court.

Genuine Webfoot mist began descending yesterday.

The winter of our discontent is evidently near at hand.

Bishop Morris will soon start for Italy on a missionary tour.

The officers on the steamer Bonita report no new vessels in the river.

Keep a sharp look out for burglars and pickpockets as the fair is over.

The new steamer City of Salem will soon be ready to make the trial trip.

The Catholic church in East Portland will be finished the fore part of next month.

The building used for the Catholic library rooms has been receiving some necessary repairs.

No more need of the street sprinkler this season—i e judging from atmospherical indications.

The British bark Lanarkshire is now discharging rock ballast at Albina preparatory to receiving a cargo for Europe.

The little schooner Kate I. Heron sailed from Tillamook a few days ago and can soon be expected to arrive at this port.

The train which came down the road on Saturday evening was fearfully jammed. Everybody was glad to get home.

Pickpockets are reported to be in force. Our efficient police force will soon make away with them and their twin brothers, burglars.

A horse attached to a buggy took fright on Saturday morning and ran away, upsetting the buggy. Little damage was committed.

The steamship John L Stephens, which left San Francisco for this port Saturday morning, brings 102 cabin and 117 steerage passengers besides 800 tons of freight.

Rev Father Verboort will celebrate Mass next Sunday at the house of Mr Forstel near Beaverton, Washington Co., for the accommodation of the numerous Catholic families living in that vicinity.

The beautiful moonlight nights last week caused many young ladies and gents to hang over the gate and say "good bye." A carpenter acquaintance of ours says he repaired no less than fifteen gates damaged by such "good byes."

THE TERRITORIES

There are two or three rivers which empty into Gray's harbor near the coast that would be navigable for steamboats for a considerable distance if a few drifts of logs were removed.

The blacksmith at Port Townsend has just struck a new lead, that of making anchors for the sloops and schooners running to and from that place. Last week he had contracts for ten ranging from 70 to 150 pounds each.

Mr L P Ireland and Mr H Hanson have been up the Skykomish looking after their mining interests. While there in the mountains they had the good fortune to kill a very large mountain goat weighing over five hundred pounds.

The barkentine Victor arrived at Port Gamble on Monday from the Society islands having made the trip from the mill down to the islands, discharged there, and returned in three months and two days. Four months is quick for such a trip, and five and six not uncommon.

There are six vessels now at Port Blakely, five on the way to it, and as many on the way from it. The company have had to turn away four vessels lately from lack of lumber. The foreign and coastwise trade of Port Blakely requires a fleet of fifteen or twenty vessels constantly.

The Seattle mines of late are very much favored by developments. Two coal veins that have been running parallel, have, in the working come together making a seam some ten feet in thickness with a lift of near five hundred feet. They also find another six feet vein of superior coal.

An arrangement has been made and the papers will be signed in a few days for the building of the Seattle and Walla Walla railroad from Seattle to the coal mine, on Cedar river a distance of some twenty miles. This will furnish the transportation for some three or more mines now known. It is a move of great value to the whole country.

From J M Foster driver on the Idaho road the Boise Statesman learns of the suicide at Quartzburg of a saloon keeper, by hanging. Deceased was a Frenchman and known by the soubriquet of "Fred." To get beyond his troubles, he fastened one end of a rope to a hook in the ceiling which had supported a chandelier and with the other end round his neck mounted the counter and jumped into eternity.

On Sunday 3d inst the people of Gray's Harbor were considerably excited by the appearance of a large schooner sailing up the bay. She proved to be a schooner from San Francisco to Shoalwater Bay for oysters, commanded by Captain Wilson. The day being foggy she mistook Gray's Harbor for Shoalwater Bay. The captain came ashore at Chehalis Point. He stated that the entrance to Gray's Harbor was all that one could ask. The schooner went out again the same day and entered Shoalwater Bay the Tuesday following.

The miners at Fairview, Idaho held a meeting on the 10th and closed all the mines of War Eagle Mountain to shut down that had not paid up as per their manifesto issued some time since. They not only refuse to work themselves, but have instituted measures to prevent anybody else from doing anything in or about the mines. They will not even allow the engines to work to keep out the water and, as a consequence, some of the mines are rapidly filling up. They have closed down the Ida Elmore, South Chariot, Mahogany, Poorman, War Eagle Empire and Poorman. They have placed armed guards at some of the mines to see that the orders of the Union are carried out to the letter.

On Monday morning of last week Fairview, a mining town in Owyhee county, Idaho, was almost totally destroyed by fire. The Avalanche says: The estimated losses of some of the parties are as follows: Wm Hardiman, $25,000; Tom Kittle $15,000; Peter Owens, $10,000; L B Rinehart $12,000; W V Williams $6,000; David Dorsey $10,000; A. McAuley $2,500; Ed Borman $2,000; DeRenny $1,000; Miners Union $2,500; Constantine, $500. The other losses cannot yet be estimated, but the total destruction of property will not fall much short of $100,000. Some of the goods in Hardiman's store were saved but in a damaged condition. The books, papers and other valuables in Mr Hardiman's safe are reported not to have been damaged. No lives were lost and nobody injured beyond some bruises and scratches sustained while fighting the fire. The heat of the burning town was felt at Cosing... Half Way House, a mile and a half from Fairview, by people who went up from Silver. The destruction of Fairview should be a warning to Silver City. The construction of a large reservoir on the hillside above the town would not have cost more than $1,000 and in all probability would have saved Fairview from the dreadful calamity that has overtaken it.

AMUSEMENTS.

This evening John Wilson's colossal Roman Hippodrome and Circus will spread its tent on the skating rink lot and give the opening performance. We are requested to state that in order to conform to the school regulations the matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday will commence at 3 o'clock instead of 2 p m as heretofore announced. The season cannot be prolonged beyond three nights and two matinees as the company will return to San Francisco on the next steamer. A crowded house will doubtless greet the initial performance this evening.

Mr Lanie Phelps and troupe returned last evening from a highly successful season at Salem during the past week and will open this evening at New Market Theater. An attractive programme is offered opening with the "Lancashire Lass" and concluding with the laughable Irish comedy of "His Last Legs." The cast includes the entire strength of the company. But one performance will be given this week. To-morrow morning the troupe leaves for Olympia where they will play during the present week. On Saturday they will return to this city and inaugurate a new season opening next Monday night.

CAUTION!

Having satisfied ourselves that certain dealers are selling inferior goods which they represent as our manufacture, we therefore caution the public against such misrepresentations.

Any person buying goods, sold as OUR MAKE, which should not give satisfaction will confer a favor upon the undersigned by transmitting a sample thereof, together with the name of the firm who sold the same. We will then be enabled to prosecute parties guilty of palming off base imitations for goods of our manufacture.

A MOVING SCENE

IN THE IMAGE OF A FIRST WIFE [illegible] ON THE BRAIN

A short time ago a young looking woman of the middle class [illegible] had seemingly lost her mind was arrested in a semi-destitute condition and carried to the Central Station [illegible] charged on the books with [illegible] unable to give a satisfactory account of herself.

Though her hair was unkempt and dishevelled and her clothing scant [illegible] and dragging from her wanderings far and wide in the streets looking for her lost husband as she said there was such a pitiful look about her face and eyes, that the officials and especially Lynch, the turnkey of the station, treated her with more consideration than is usually shown prisoners of her class.

And as she sat in her cell swaying to and fro as suffering women often do—a sort of keeping time as it were to her sighs and moans all [illegible] band—Lynch who looked upon her thought he [illegible] Mary [illegible] him the wife [illegible] McGill [illegible] a [illegible] who had [illegible] this suspicion [illegible] to Dr Cooper who at once had the woman removed to the insane asylum whither she would have been sent [illegible] had she been duly arraigned before Judge Evans.

When taken [illegible] she was placed in the reception [illegible] after Stephen McGill the lunatic was brought in and placed before her.

Instantly the poor woman sprang to her feet and rushing forward [illegible] her husband McGill for a moment stood as though more dazed than [illegible] his head and shaking his head [illegible] to clear away the obstructions [illegible] upon his brain by [illegible] Is [illegible] Kate? Have you come [illegible] at last

At the mention of the name of Kate the face of the woman flushed and [illegible] and then recovering herself quickly she said No it is not Kate your first wife Steve but Mary Stephens whom you married afterward.

McGill however did not understand how it was that the woman before him was not his Kate of early days, and do what she would he kept calling her simply "Kate Kate." The second marriage was evidently blotted out from his distempered mind as though it had never been a reality.

Then the two were separated and the man went back to his place of confinement calling now and then for his Kate his own dear wife Kate," until his daily ravings came on and he was again stark mad—forgetful even of his first love.

The shock of the meeting had a contrary effect upon the woman. She is growing better and better and will shortly be able to come out again into the world alone and join in the multitude of toilers seeking their daily bread.—New Orleans Picayune

Was it Benjamin Franklin who got off that bit of advice about rising with the lark? And did he ever see the thermometer at twenty degrees below zero and find the coal fire out? Blast the lark that is fool enough to fly around before the frost is off the windows.—Detroit Free Press

It's simply absurd to talk about a woman being qualified to fill every position in life that man fills. For instance what woman could lounge all day around the stove in a country grocery and lie about the number of fishes she caught last summer?—Rochester Democrat

Henry Ward Beecher was introduced to a Shaker at the White Mountains the other day, and said to him I understand your belief deprives you of some of the pleasures of this life? whereupon the other replied It shields us from some of its temptations also."

A farmer says that three good bulldogs running the yard at night will do more to keep a man honest than all the talking in the world.

(Carminative)

For Diarrhœa and Dysentery use Dr. Jayne's Carminative Balsam. As changes of climate or water and indiscretions in eating often produce these complaints travelers and others should always keep a bottle of this remedy by them. It never fails to subdue the most violent attacks, and it is equally serviceable for Cramps in the Stomach or Bowels, Griping Pains, &c.

For Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum and Colic use Dr Jayne's Carminative Balsam. It removes all soreness of the abdomen, allays the irritation and calms the action of the Stomach. It may always be relied on to give immediate relief, and besides being effectual is a pleasant and safe remedy, easily administered to children.

For Asiatic Cholera and all Bowel Affections use promptly Dr. Jayne's Carminative Balsam. It checks the Diarrhea, suppresses the Cramps which generally accompany attacks of Cholera,—and conquers the disease in its incipiency. It has frequently been administered in neighborhoods where the Cholera has been raging epidemically, and it has seldom failed to give immediate and permanent relief. The Carminative has maintained its reputation as a Curative for nearly forty years, is equally effective in all latitudes, and as a Standard Household Remedy, should be kept in every family.

YOUNG MEN

Who may be suffering from the effect of youthful follies or indiscretion will do well to avail themselves of this the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of seminal weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would therefore say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice that you are treading upon dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage—remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering upon the last and are suffering some or all its ill effects remember that if you persist in procrastination the time must come when the most skillful physician can render you no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work upon your imagination but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave. Full course of treatment $25 00. Send money by Post Office order or Express with full description of the case. Call or address

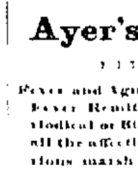
Ayer's Cathartic Pills

For all the purposes of a Family Physic



CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organ into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of everybody, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skillful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens send certificates of cures performed and of great benefits they have derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.
